THE UNITED STATE OF TRAVANCORE AND COCHIN ELECTRICITY DUTY BILL

The Hon'ble Sri. A. J. John: I beg to introduce the United State of Travancore and Cochin Electricity Duty Bill.

The Hon'ble Sri. T. K. Narayana Pillai: I second it.

The Hon'ble Sri. A. J. John: I beg to move that the Bill be taken into consideration at once.

The Hon'ble Sri. T. K. Narayana Pillai: I second it.

Sri. D. Gnanasigamoni: It appears to me that the leave to introduce is the first stage. It is taken into consideration only after the amendments are moved. That is the proper construction for the section. First, leave for introduction is given; then, introduction, and then the Bill is taken into consideration.

Mr. Speaker: I remember to have explained this matter once before. I do not know whether the hon'ble member was in the House then.

Sri. D. Gnanasigamoni: I was here.

Mr. Speaker: I shall however, try to clear the point once again. Under Standing Orders 30 and 31 leave for introduction is not necessary as the Bill has already been duly published.

When a Bill is introduced the member in charge may move, either to take the Bill into consideration or to refer the Bill to a Select Committee. In the former case an amendment may be moved by any member that the Bill be referred to a Select Committee. In either case, the Bill is open for discussion in respect of its principle and general provisions.
